

Today, Google's Doodle is dedicated to Eadweard J. Muybridge, the english photographer.

It is an animation doodle: It shows a "Gallop horse" set to motion using single photos, 27 horses, some are colored like the Google logo.

Eadweard Muybridge is known for his pioneering work on animal locomotion which used multiple cameras to capture motion.

The Doodle based an an original sequence by Eadweard J. Muybridge.

Happy b'day Mr. Muybridge!
