

A working iPod on a web page: a tribute to Steve Jobs - and a great HTML 5 example too!

Inventika Solutions, a small Web development company, created this astounding HTML 5+CSS3+jQuery project that works exactly as the original iPod - as a tribute to Steve Jobs.

The Mumbai-based company achieved great reviews because of this work - and they really deserve it: it really works!

Try it out for yourself: it's an iPod you'll never lose or have to recharge!
